

Life Skills Peer Tutor Disclosure Document 23-24

Welcome to Peer Tutoring! We are so excited to have you here! This is an important and fun job!
We need you!!!

- This class will teach you how to advocate for people with disabilities. You can help our students make friends, and participate in school activities. You will be an example to others by demonstrating that people with disabilities should have the same rights and privileges as everyone else. This means that you will look out for these students in other classes, in the halls, in the lunchroom, and in the community. I hope that you have a fun and enjoyable experience with us!
- You will learn to become a better friend, leader and teacher. Our students will follow your example, so set a great example! You will learn to make learning fun and active by using manipulatives and visuals to teach and explain simply and clearly.
- All school rules as established by the school will be strictly enforced. Especially concerning phones and dress code.
- Confidentiality: While working with our students you may learn some personal information about them. PLEASE DO NOT SHARE ANY OF THIS INFORMATION WITH ANYONE OUTSIDE OF THIS CLASS!!! People with disabilities have the right to confidentiality under Federal Law.
- Attendance/participation: Consistent attendance and participation in this class is mandatory. This class is a performance-based class. If you are not in class, you can not perform. You will receive 10 points a day for attending and doing these things:
 1. Be on time and ready to start class when the bell rings and get needed teaching supplies.
 2. Be a good teacher-use manipulatives, visuals and games to make learning fun-they CAN learn!!
 3. Be a good friend-treat students with respect and love-What do you have in common with them?
 4. Stay with the students and keep them safe at all times!
 5. Be a GREAT EXAMPLE! Follow all school and classroom rules.

Attendance is the most important part of being a peer tutor! 10 Points for turning this disclosure document in. We really need you here, and our students depend on you. You can miss up to 3 days without it affecting your grade. You can make up 5 days of missed class.

Talk to Mrs. Peacock if you want to make up your absences. To make up one day you need to spend at least 30 minutes doing one of the following: Email Mrs. Peacock shauna.peacock@washk12.org your completed work

- Write a paper about a specific disability so you understand student better
- Write a paper about the best way to teach a person with specific disability
