Expectations

Be respectful | Be responsible | Stay engaged

All expectations described in the DMS Student Handbook will be enforced. The handbook can be found on the DMS website: dms.washk12.org/students

Honors course work involves quarterly reading and writing assignments that will need to be completed outside of class time

Late Work

Most Assignments can be completed and turned in until the end of a quarter.
Assignments completed after the due date will lose points for each day they are late.
Some assignments will not be accepted late.

Course Essential Standards

Speaking and Listening: Students will learn to collaborate, express and listen to ideas, integrate and evaluate information from various sources, use media and visual displays as well as language and grammar strategically to help achieve communicative purposes, and adapt to context and task.

Reading: Students will learn to proficiently read and comprehend grade level literature and informational text, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the grade level text complexity band.

Writing: Students will learn to write for a variety of tasks, purposes, and audiences using appropriate grammar/conventions, syntax, and style.

Grades

30% - Assignments
70% - Essential Standard Assessments

Honors students falling below 70% at the end of the quarter will be moved to Language Arts class where they can be more successful.
