

2018 Summer Reading Events at the Hurricane Library

All programs are at 10:00 & again at 11:00, unless otherwise indicated

June 5—10:00 am - 12:30 pm

Water Bounce House Party! Wear your swim suit for a bouncing fun time!

June 12—Dan the Music Man

This workshop is fully interactive, with 70 percussion instruments for children to explore, experiment, and create with. Dan makes music accessible to anyone so they can tap into their own authentic creating power!

June 19—Home Depot Hands-on woodworking workshop.

June 26 – Kindermusik—the world’s leading music and movement program. Tara Dunn uses the power and joy of music, helping children to develop a passion for music.

July 3 – Science of Sound

What is sound? How are we able to hear everything around us? Come join us as we discover together how sound functions, travels, and moves. Play with non-Newtonian fluids and see sound in action!

July 10—Tuacahn?? We won’t know until April 16th.....

July 17—Musical Instrument Rodeo—Have you always wanted to play the electric bass? Drums? Violin? See, hear & try a plethora of musical instruments!

July 24—CLOSED no program

July 26—Trey Paterson Magic—An award winning street, stage and comedy magician!

LIBRARIES ROCK!

Children ages 0-12 can sign up for the Summer Reading Program in June. Read

20 minutes per day for Picture book readers.

and 30 min. per day for Chapter book readers.

Return the reading log to the Library each week for a free coupon!

Tween programs are on Wednesdays at 1 p.m. (except on July 18 at 3:30 p.m.)

June 6—Snakes, lizards, insects! Hands-on event with SUU Animal Ambassadors.

June 13--Ka Ju Ki Bo and Rock’n Roll! Raven Cain will perform and entertain us with karate, kickboxing and jiu jitsu. Come learn some moves.

June 20--Spheros, Evobots, and more! Another exciting experience awaits with Miriam Force from the 4H Extension Office.

June 27—Rock Out! View some awesome rocks from DSU Paleontologist Dr. Harris. You might even get to take one home!

July 11--Native American Flutes and Didgeridoos too! Bob Rhees will perform and help you make an instrument too.

July 18--Otaku Dreams Cosplay Café Workshop! Learn about the origins of Japanese Maid Cafes and watch a performance.

July 25--The King of Rock & Roll! Kevin Conley performs and impersonates Elvis Presley.

August 1—Fun for all! Peggy Clyde will provide a variety of entertaining activity stations.

